What is The Hunter Douglas Trade Alliance?

Managing your window covering business requires a significant financial investment in samples and displays. Keeping up with the latest Hunter Douglas products, lifting systems and innovations to ensure you sell the right product in the right window entails extensive product knowledge.

To make selling and representing Hunter Douglas products as easy and convenient as possible, we have select sources in your area for Hunter Douglas window fashions.

These local Hunter Douglas Gallery dealers can provide the critical tools you need to help develop and grow your Hunter Douglas sales as well as serve many of your other design needs.

Your clients will enjoy big energy savings with some of our most energy efficient products and may also qualify for a Federal Tax Credit of up to $1500. Ask your Trade Alliance Partner for details.
